

We recommend staying on the southside of Edinburgh for ease of transport to the Easter Bush Campus. Travel and accommodation information is available below. We have listed some accommodation out of town in Roslin, birthplace of not only Dolly the Sheep but also Bovril Johnston and, of course, location of the Rosslyn Chapel of Da Vinci Code fame – the accommodation out of town does not have a direct bus service to the Easter Bush campus.

In addition to the transport listed we will be running a coach from Easter Bush into the Cameron Toll area, to get you close to your accommodation after the sessions on Wednesday 7th. A conference meal is planned for the Wednesday night which will be located on the southside of Edinburgh, within easy walking/busing distance of the suggested accommodation. On the Thursday morning, a coach will leave Cameron Toll at 8.30 am to bring you out to Easter Bush for the second day's sessions.

Accommodation to suit every pocket!

Location

The Institute forms part of the University of Edinburgh's Easter Bush Veterinary Campus, approximately 7miles/11km south of the centre of the City of Edinburgh.

At the heart of a growing cluster of bioscience organisations, the Institute has good transport links with Edinburgh, other parts of Scotland, and international destinations.

Road

From the North, West, and East, join the Edinburgh City bypass (A720). Take the bypass to Straiton Interchange and follow the A701 (sign-posted for Penicuik and Peebles) past IKEA, to Bilston. Continue straight on at the Bilston mini-roundabout and take a right at the lights onto A703, Seafield Moor Road. Take the next left and follow the road until you get to the Easter Bush campus.

The journey time from the centre of Edinburgh is 20-30mins. The taxi fare for this journey is approximately £15.

Bus

Easter Bush Veterinary Campus is currently served by Lothian Regional Transport buses. In peak times the 47 has a service every 20mins to the campus from the Cameron Toll area and the 67 service operates from a similar area with an hourly service. Further information can be found at Lothian Buses or by calling 08708 727271.

From other areas of town (Morningside) – the 15A service operates an half hourly service to the campus.

Rail

The nearest mainline station to Roslin is Edinburgh Waverley, which has regular services to all parts of the United Kingdom. Timetable information is available from Network Rail.

Air

Edinburgh Airport is approximately 8miles (13km) west of the City Centre and approximately 19miles (31km) north-west of Roslin. Airport Information can be contacted on 0131 333 1000.

There is an airport taxi rank at the Terminal and a regular Airport Bus service to the City Centre (Waverley Bridge). The taxi fare for this journey is approximately £27. Car hire is also available at the airport. The journey time to the City Centre is about 30mins, and to Roslin is 20mins.
